

Position: Data Mining Analyst
Category: Full time permanent
Location: Synergy Centre, ITT Dublin
Salary: Negotiable

Idiro Technologies, an exciting new software company focused on providing data mining and marketing analytics solutions to the Telecommunications, Financial and Utilities Industries, is currently recruiting a Data Mining Analyst.

Experience: 3+ years commercial experience

Skills Required:

- Experience working with tools such as SPSS Clementine or other relevant data mining/ statistical software
- Experience in developing and implementing statistical and data mining models
- Proven ability to deliver strategic business results using data mining.
- Ability to understand and deliver on customer expectations.
- Exposure to telecoms, financial and/or utilities industries desirable
- Strong written and verbal communications skills
- Highly motivated to work in a small team environment

Responsibilities

- Application of statistical and data mining techniques to business problems
- Provision of insights and development of strategies for campaign management
- Customer segmentation strategies

Attributes

Self-starter, energetic and the drive to thrive in a start-up working environment
Excellent communication and client-facing skills including the ability to deal with senior managers/decision makers
Exceptional attention to detail
Ability to think laterally - identifying all opportunities for our software
Quick learner

Contact: jobs@idiro.com